TTA Capacity Development

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) operates the OJJDP National Training and Technical Assistance Center (NTTAC) in support of a mandate—the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act—to reduce youth crime and to improve the juvenile justice service delivery system through quality training and technical assistance (TTA). OJJDP NTTAC supports OJJDP in:

- Developing and disseminating the Core Performance Standards for TTA.
- Facilitating the exchange of information and ideas through networking sessions, online resources and discussion groups.
- Managing the various TTA provider workgroups that offer recommendations to OJJDP on improving the system of TTA delivery.
- Conducting evaluations of TTA provided and producing reports.

Systemic Coordination of TTA

OJJDP NTTAC assists OJJDP in ensuring its network of TTA projects is efficiently coordinated by brokering OJJDP’s TTA resources to the juvenile justice and delinquency prevention field by:

- Providing phone and online support to customers seeking information and guidance about OJJDP TTA.
- Coordinating and tracking TTA requests, making appropriate referrals and reporting on aggregate data.
- Developing and disseminating the TTA Provider Directory.
- Conducting ongoing assessment of the TTA needs of the field.

Virtual TTA Delivery

OJJDP NTTAC supports the delivery of quality virtual TTA by:

- Offering webinar support to TTA providers to deliver webinars of interest to the field.
- Maintaining the OJJDP Online University which offers a single point of entry in order to centralize and streamline access to OJJDP TTA Providers and Partners’ training events and resources.
- Supporting peer sharing platforms to promote innovation and information sharing.
- Maintaining an online Learning Management System platform and assisting TTA providers with synthesizing information into online trainings that effectively transfer knowledge to the field.
