

Coalition for Juvenile Justice

Types of CJJ Membership

State Advisory Groups	Individual Members	Youth Members	Organizational Members
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ SAG memberships encompass all current Governor-appointed volunteers ✓ Membership also includes Juvenile Justice Specialists, DMC Coordinators, and Compliance Monitors 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Individual Members join CJJ because they are interested in juvenile justice reform ✓ Includes juvenile justice practitioners, service providers, parents, public officials, concerned citizens, and others 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Youth Members are individuals that are 24 and under who have an interest in juvenile justice reform ✓ Includes full- and part-time students, interns, and young professionals 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Organizational Members are organizations who are interested in juvenile justice reform ✓ Includes nonprofits, private companies, foundations, and others organizations

Our Vision

The Coalition for Juvenile Justice (CJJ) envisions a nation where fewer children are at risk of delinquency; and if they are at risk or involved with the justice system, they and their families receive every possible opportunity to live safe, healthy, and fulfilling lives.

Our Mission

CJJ is a nationwide coalition of State Advisory Groups (SAGs) and allies dedicated to preventing children and youth from becoming involved in the courts and upholding the highest standards of care when youth are charged with wrongdoing and enter the justice system.

1319 F Street NW, Suite 402 • Washington, DC 20004 • 202.467.0864
info@juvjustice.org • www.juvjustice.org

Coalition for Juvenile Justice

@4juvjustice

JusticeCJJ

CJJ.Justice

CJJ State Advisory Group Member Benefits

State Advisory Groups (SAGs) are an integral part of CJJ's coalition. Upon joining CJJ, each state's SAG Members, SAG Chair, Juvenile Justice Specialist, Compliance Monitor, and DMC Coordinator are considered CJJ SAG Members. SAGs have voting rights at CJJ's governing body, the Council of SAGs.

CJJ Develops Leadership for Juvenile Justice Reform

- ⇒ SAGs receive the maximum discount for conference registration for all SAG members and state staff who work with the SAG
- ⇒ Members have access to CJJ regional conferences and business meetings
- ⇒ Members receive priority registration for all CJJ webinars on current and emerging issues, policies, and practices from experts in the field
- ⇒ Members have access to fact sheets, toolkits, and new resources
- ⇒ Members can receive TTA such as targeted webinars, telephone consultations, and connections to relevant experts

CJJ Represents Members on the Federal Level

- ⇒ CJJ serves as the voice of our members to Congress and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
- ⇒ CJJ translates how federal policy affects the delivery of services to the field
- ⇒ Members receive up-to-the-minute information about pending legislation and the federal appropriations process
- ⇒ Members receive training throughout the year on federal and state government relations
- ⇒ CJJ assists in the development of national and state-level reform efforts

CJJ Enhances Communication Among Stakeholders

- ⇒ Members have voting representation at the Annual CJJ Council of SAGs meeting
- ⇒ Members can serve and vote on the Executive Board, Youth Committee, Ethnic and Cultural Diversity Committee, Government Relations Committee, and other leadership committees
- ⇒ Members can share information and get peer support through our network of 8,000+ state and local juvenile justice practitioners
- ⇒ Members have the opportunity to partner on webinars with an average audience of 500+
- ⇒ Members receive the monthly Juvenile Justice Monitor and enjoy priority news placement

Want to Become a CJJ Member?

Find out how your State Advisory Group can join CJJ at www.juvjustice.org/about-us/members.

