

Coalition for Juvenile Justice

Types of CJJ Membership

State Advisory Groups

- ✓ SAG memberships encompass all current Governor-appointed volunteers
- ✓ Membership also includes Juvenile Justice Specialists, DMC Coordinators, and Compliance Monitors

Individual Members

- ✓ Individual Members join CJJ because they are interested in juvenile justice reform
- ✓ Includes juvenile justice practitioners, service providers, parents, public officials, concerned citizens, and others

Youth Members

- ✓ Youth Members are individuals under the age of 25 who have an interest in juvenile justice reform
- ✓ Includes full- and part-time students, interns, and young professionals

Organizational Members

- ✓ Organizational Members are organizations who are interested in juvenile justice reform
- ✓ Includes nonprofits, private companies, foundations, and others organizations

Our Vision

The Coalition for Juvenile Justice (CJJ) envisions a nation where fewer children are at risk of delinquency; and if they are at risk or involved with the justice system, they and their families receive every possible opportunity to live safe, healthy, and fulfilling lives.

Our Mission

CJJ is a nationwide coalition of State Advisory Groups (SAGs) and allies dedicated to preventing children and youth from becoming involved in the courts and upholding the highest standards of care when youth are charged with wrongdoing and enter the justice system.

1319 F Street NW, Suite 402 • Washington, DC 20004 • 202.467.0864
info@juvjustice.org • www.juvjustice.org

Coalition for Juvenile Justice

@4juvjustice

JusticeCJJ

CJJ.Justice

CJJ Youth Member Benefits

CJJ proudly represents emerging leaders under the age of 25 that are interested in juvenile justice reform. CJJ youth members are vital to our mission and an integral part of our coalition.

CJJ Develops Leadership for Juvenile Justice Reform

- ⇒ Members receive a discount on CJJ conference registration
- ⇒ Members have access to CJJ regional conferences and business meetings
- ⇒ Youth members are invited to attend CJJ's Annual Youth Summit
- ⇒ Members receive priority registration for all CJJ webinars on current and emerging issues, policies, and practices from experts in the field
- ⇒ Members have access to fact sheets, toolkits, and new resources
- ⇒ CJJ offers networking opportunities with juvenile justice professionals around the country

CJJ Represents Members on the Federal Level

- ⇒ CJJ serves as the voice of our members to Congress and the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
- ⇒ CJJ translates how federal policy affects the delivery of services to the field
- ⇒ Members receive up-to-the-minute information about pending legislation and the federal appropriations process
- ⇒ Members receive training throughout the year on federal and state government relations
- ⇒ CJJ assists in the development of national and state-level reform efforts

CJJ Enhances Communication Among Stakeholders

- ⇒ Members can serve and vote on the Executive Board, Youth Committee, Ethnic and Cultural Diversity Committee, Government Relations Committee, and other leadership committees*
- ⇒ Members can communicate with other emerging leaders across the country on our Youth Member listserv
- ⇒ Members can share information and get peer support through our network of 8,000+ state and local juvenile justice practitioners
- ⇒ Members receive the monthly Juvenile Justice Monitor and enjoy priority news placement
- ⇒ Members receive information about job postings and internship opportunities

*Only SAG members can vote at CJJ's Annual Council of SAGs Meeting

Want to Become a CJJ Member?

Find out how you can join CJJ at www.juvjustice.org/about-us/members.

